

Personal Electronic Devices

Do...

- Use your phone to engage in the lesson (only when your teacher has given permission).
- Be present; talk to your peers, listen to instructions, answer questions, engage in activities.
- Know if there is an emergency, your parents can contact the office and the office will find you.
- If you have your phone out and you are not engaging in the lesson, put away your phone if the teacher asks you to.
- Follow the school rules for cell phone use in hallways, cafeteria, and common areas.

Don't...

- Use your phone without the teacher's permission.
- Use your phone in the restroom or locker room.
- Expect your phone back at the end of the class if an administrator needs to take it away.
- Expect your phone back without a parent meeting if the administrator needs to be called to the classroom because of your phone.
- Expect school to replace your phone if it is taken due to misuse, damaged, lost, or stolen on school grounds.
- Use your phone to engage in social media that threatens or bully others ("cyber bullying").
- Make the Superintendent ban all phones in school by not following the rules.
