College & Career Readiness

Dr. Tony Evers, State Superintendent:

“Academics are important, but we know true college and career readiness is much more than that. Our graduates must have the knowledge, skills, and habits that will allow them to succeed in life after high school.

Wisconsin kids should be able to think critically, collaborate, demonstrate leadership, use creativity, accept responsibility, and persist.”

The screenshot shows the Wisconsin Department of Public Instruction website. The header features the department's logo and name. A navigation bar includes links for Home, Parents & Students, Schools & Educators, Libraries, and Data & Media, along with a search bar. The main content area is titled "Academic & Career Planning (ACP)" and features a large image of a young woman in a yellow hard hat and a man in a plaid shirt and white hard hat, both looking at a document on a construction site. Below the image is a blue banner with the text "Work-Based Learning — High Growth Careers". On the left side, there is a sidebar with a menu containing "ACP Home", "Background", and "Resources". Below the menu is a "Twitter Feed" section showing a tweet from "Wisconsin DPI ACP" (@WisDPI_ACP) with the text: "How corporate America can close the skills gap via @FortuneMagazine for.tn/1B1sbrb".
