

SCHOOL DISTRICT LEGAL STATUS

The legal basis for public education in the school district is vested in the will of the people as expressed in the Wisconsin Constitution. Public education is primarily a state responsibility and a local school district's function.

The official name of this school district is the "School District of West Allis-West Milwaukee, et. al.". It is classified as a unified school district and includes the City of West Allis, the Village of West Milwaukee, and portions of the City of Greenfield in Milwaukee County and the City of New Berlin in Waukesha County.

Educational services of the District shall be organized as a program of instruction for grades kindergarten through 12. The District shall be operated as a single system by the Superintendent of Schools, under the direction of the Board of Education.
